

09.00	Registration Open - Tea/Coffee Foyer FOY2_00
09.30-16.30	Quiet Room – Seminar Room 025 Quiet Room will be open all day, with space for reflection
10.00	Opening Plenary - Lecturer Theatre 037
10.00-10.05	Opening Words Professor Hywel Thomas, President FLSW
10.05-10.10	Welcome from Swansea University Professor Helen Griffiths, FLSW
10.10-10.50	Keynote speaker: Professor Uzo Iwobi, FLSW OBE Founder and Chief Executive, Race Council Cymru Title of speech: Promoting Anti-Racism in Organisations in Wales
11.00-12.25	Session One
	Parallel 1A – Classroom 036	Parallel 1B - Conference Room 007	Parallel 1C - Seminar Room 025
	Workshop: Peer Review Why and How	Speed Networking	Quiet Room
	Professor Simon Hands and Dr Shareena Hamzah-Osbourne will facilitate this hands-on session to explore why being a peer reviewer is an essential component of professional development, its importance in the publishing process, and what to expect as a reviewer. They'll also discuss best practice for writing effective peer reviews, including how to provide constructive feedback and avoid common pitfalls.	Facilitated by Dr Amy Sanders - meet other Early Career Researchers and hear about their work while practicing your networking skills in this fun and safe environment	The Quiet Room will be open all day for those who need to take a break, with space for reflection
12.30-13.10	Lunch, Foyer Foyer FOY2_00 and Poster Viewing Exhibition Conference Room 007

13.15-14.15	Session Two
	Parallel 2A – Classroom 036	Parallel 2B – Lecture Theatre 037	Parallel 2C - Seminar Room 025
	Workshop: Top N (N>10) Mistakes that Grant Applicants Make	Flash Talks Part 1	Quiet Room
	Dr Adrian Osbourne will share about a range of mistakes and recommendations made by academic researchers in their journey to apply for research funding. There will be an opportunity to ask questions and share experience during the session.	Hosted by Dr Emrys Evans and Dr Amy Sanders Hear about research ideas from a variety of fields, presented by Welsh ECRs. This relaxed forum aims to stimulate new ideas, spark collaborations, and foster interdisciplinary research.	The Quiet Room will be open all day for those who need to take a break, with space for reflection
		Dr Muhammad Naveed Arshad, Aberystwyth University Landscape Decision System for Sustainable Grassland Management Through Spatial Modelling Tools
		Dr Menna Brown Swansea University Interrogating Social Prescribing
		Dr Julie Peconi Swansea University Are Welsh primary schools Sunproofed? Results of a national survey: Scoping the landscape of sun safety policies in Wales
14:15-14:30	Tea Break Foyer FOY2_00

14:30-15:25	Session Three
	Parallel 3A - Classroom 036	Parallel 3B – Lecture Theatre 037	Parallel 3C - Seminar Room 025
	Workshop: Developing collaborative leadership	Flash Talks Part 2	Quiet Room
	Trainers from Advance HE will help develop your leadership skills alongside the policy context unique to Wales. This webinar will combine theory with practice on collaborative leadership whilst signposting to networks and resources	Hosted by Dr Emrys Evans and Dr Amy Sanders Hear about research ideas from a variety of fields, presented by Welsh ECRs. This relaxed forum aims to stimulate new ideas, spark collaborations, and foster interdisciplinary research.	The Quiet Room will be open all day for those who need to take a break, with space for reflection
		Non Humphries, Aberystwyth University Simultaneous translation in the courts of law in Wales: a boost to the language rights of individuals and to the status of the Welsh language as a legal language This talk will be presented in the medium of Welsh
		Dr Richard Gater, Cardiff University The Future of Work: Addressing the Needs of Marginalised Young Men
		Dr Shubha Sreenivas Wrexham-Glyndwr University Pet-therapy using dogs to manage stress in university students
15:30-16:15	Closing Plenary - Lecture Theatre 037 Reflections on the Day – Professor Ambreena Manji, FLSW, Cardiff University

16.15- 16.20	Closing Remarks and Poster Competition Winner Announcement Olivia Harrison, Chief Executive, Learned Society of Wales
-----------------	--