Proposed Project

7. Project title (max 10 words):

8. Research theme/subject area:

9. Please describe your project in 50 words or less for the benefit of non-specialists:

10. Which stream are you applying to? (You may only apply to one stream)

- Wales Studies
- Early Career Researcher
- Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences
- Pathways to Peace (Sponsored by Academi Heddwch)

11. Please outline how the project fulfils the additional criteria for the relevant stream (see guidance document) (max 200 words):

- Wales Studies:
  Outline the relevance of your project in a Welsh context.
- Early Career Researcher:
  Outline the reasons for considering yourself an Early Career Researcher and the value of the proposed Workshop(s) for your field of research and professional development.
- Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences:
  Outline how relationships will be developed across communities of researchers, potentially leading to innovative future proposals bringing disciplines together.
- Pathways to Peace (Sponsored by Academi Heddwch Cymru):
  Outline if the submission is intended for the topic of Contemporary Militarism or Peace in general, and how the project will develop a better understanding of the relevant topic.

In addition to the above, please consider the contribution of your project to at least one of the seven well-being goals of the Wellbeing of Future Generations Act 2015.

Project Aims

12. What are the main objectives for the use of this grant? (max 400 words)

13. Outline a plan for the approach and methods of project delivery. How will you organise the workshop(s) and what will happen during the workshop(s)? Please describe briefly how those involved (including the lead applicant) have the relevant knowledge and experience to deliver this plan. (max 400 words)

14. What are the intended outcomes of the project? Please describe the medium and long-term outcomes and/or impact that you anticipate your workshop will have and outline the steps that you will take to ensure these outcomes and/or impact. Please also consider how your project will develop and promote civic mission work, defined by MEDR as how the workshop grant will 'operate for a wider public good'. (max 450 words)

15. How much financial support is requested (up to £1000, or £2000 for those applying for the Pathways to Peace stream where there is an international partner)? If you need additional funding to achieve your outcomes, where will this funding come from?

16. How will the LSW grant funding be used? The budget and costings must be based on valid estimates.

Research Integrity and Equitable Partnerships

17. What are the potential ethical implications of your project and how will you ensure your project adheres to the principles of research integrity (as outlined in UKCORI) and effective research management (see guidance on undertaking good research for further information)? Your answer should demonstrate that you have considered how you will address specific needs related to Equity, Diversity and Inclusion. (max 400 words)

18. If relevant, I intend to seek ethical approval for this project if my application is successful

    Please Note: This is optional and will not influence the outcome of the decision. Your decision to seek ethical approval should be based on whether you have access to an ethics committee and if you will be using your workshop(s) to collect data from live subjects and/or intend to publish findings or outcomes based on data collected in the workshop(s).
