

CYMDEITHAS DDYSGEDIG CYMRU
THE LEARNED SOCIETY OF WALES

Application Pack - Senior Public Policy Officer

0.8FTE (28hrs per week)

Fixed term: 1 year from appointment

Grade D: £33,662 – £39,559
(pro-rata)

We are seeking an experienced Senior Public Policy Officer to coordinate our policy advice work - contributing to the delivery of one of our four key strategic priorities: “Contribute to major policy solutions by providing independent advice and facilitating knowledge exchange”. We are looking for someone to with the enthusiasm to mobilise our amazing Fellows and other stakeholders to ensure our work delivers impact.

The role holder will also have responsibility for the Society’s Welsh Language offer and bilingual working.

This is an exciting opportunity for someone looking to combine flexible working with an interesting and varied role in a dynamic team. We are looking to employ on a fixed-term basis for one year (in the first instance), and on a 0.8FTE basis, but will consider job-shares.

Fluency in Welsh is a requirement of this post. We are happy to support targeted professional development for Welsh speakers who feel out of practice or lacking confidence.

About the Learned Society of Wales

We are Wales’ National Academy for Sciences, Arts and Humanities. Our charitable purpose is the advancement of knowledge, and the power of research and innovation to benefit Wales’ economy and society. Our Fellows, rigorously selected through a scrutiny process, are leaders in their fields with the shared purpose of giving back to Wales.

Our small, friendly and committed staff team of 14 is responsible for delivering the Society’s activities. You will work with the whole team, which also brings the opportunity to get involved in a range of activities beyond your core responsibilities, gaining insight into different areas of the organisation and contributing to a collaborative and supportive working culture.

About the role

We are excited to be establishing a new mechanism within the Society to support our Fellowship of Wales’ leading experts to inform policymaking with independent and reliable evidence. This role will lead on the successful formation of the new mechanism, with guidance from an expert advisory group and support from our small team, including the Head of Public Policy, an Administrative Assistant, and our Senior Communications Officer.

You will have demonstrable experience in supporting the development of evidence-led policy advice. You will have a strong understanding of the Welsh political system, and understand how evidence can inform policymaking within this context. You will also have an understanding of how to reach influential stakeholders with evidence-based policy advice.

You will be fluent in Welsh, and be willing to support the Society’s bilingual ways of working. The Society is a bilingual organisation with strong practices already in place, and a positive workplace culture surrounding the Welsh language. We are happy to receive applications from Welsh speakers that are out of practice or lack confidence in their Welsh. We support professional training to support Welsh language development at all levels.

The post holder will have high levels of independence and scope for creative working in designing and delivering an evolving area of work for the Society. You will be part of a small external affairs team, and also as part of a small organisation of 14. You will report to our Head of Public Policy.

Working for us

We are looking to appoint someone on a part-time basis of 28 hours per week. We are open to discussing a range of working patterns and would be happy to consider a minimum of 21 and up to 28 hours per week, depending on the candidate's circumstances and level of experience.

The role is offered on an initial one-year fixed-term contract in the first instance, with the intention of extending to a permanent position, subject to mutual agreement and the Society's annual funding settlement.

We are committed to building a diverse and inclusive Society that reflects the society we serve. We warmly welcome applications from individuals from under-represented backgrounds. We pride ourselves on being a supportive and sociable team, and are looking for someone who will become an active part of this by contributing to team meetings, participating in training, and helping us foster a positive working environment.

Key facts about this role

Salary	£33,662 – 39,559 per annum, pro-rata for part-time hours. Band D (spine points 24-30). We anticipate appointing at the bottom of this band, but negotiation is possible depending on experience.
Hours	The role is for 28 hours per week (0.8FTE). We are open to discussing a range of working patterns and would be happy to consider a minimum of 21 and up to 28 hours per week, depending on the candidate's circumstances and level of experience. Our staff work flexibly; the pattern of hours will be agreed with the line manager. Given this role supports business that primarily takes place during term-time, a pattern of increased hours during term time and decreased hours during main school holidays (not half term holidays) could be considered. Please be aware that any agreed working pattern must include availability for team meetings (once a week in-person meetings usually on a Wednesday). The post-holder may occasionally be required to work evenings. Any additional time worked is normally given back as TOIL (time off in lieu).

Location	Our offices are based in Cathays Park, Cardiff. We operate a hybrid working policy and anticipate the post-holder dividing their work between office and home (details to be agreed with line manager), with at least one day per week in the office. We aim to be as flexible as possible with staff but please note 100% home working is not possible as the post requires you to attend in-person meetings and events.
Line manager	Head of Public Policy
Employment terms	Fixed-term for one year. To start as soon as possible.
Annual leave	The basic leave allowance is 25 days (pro-rata), to be taken as agreed with the line manager, plus bank holidays. We also provide 7 additional 'customary leave days' per year (pro-rata), normally provided to extend Christmas and Easter breaks.
Pension and benefits	The post-holder may join our pension scheme, with the employer and employee each contributing 5% of gross salary into the scheme each month. We provide enhanced sick pay and maternity pay that exceed the statutory minimum. We provide additional annual leave (see "customary leave" above) and volunteer leave.
Travel	The job may occasionally require some travel. Expenses will be reimbursed. The post holder should be agile in terms of needing to visit other sites/meeting venues.
